PLAN TO CORNER FISH FAILS.

Health Department Seizes Ten Delayed Carloads.

Claims the Fish Was Held Back to Create a Demand.

The seizure by the Health Depart-ment of ten carloads of fish at the New York Central freight depot, at St. John's Park, last night, exposes what is sus-pected to be a bold effront upon the part of a coterie of dealers to corner the market and squeeze the retail trade.

If that was the purpose in holding the fish in the original cars in which it was shipped from Sandusky, Cleveland, Erie, Buffalo and other points along the great lakes, it has certainly met make the same and the contains and the same an certainly met with a dismal failure.

There were in all about thirty carloads of fresh-water fish at the depot. The first consignment arrived about eight days ago, and has been followed daily by from one to three cars. It was the intention, the health authorities believe, to bold the fish until there was a lively demand and then to deal the supply out in quantities just large enough to keep up the demand and the prices.

The unusual quantity of fish, daily accumulating, excited the suspicion of Dr. Lederle, and he determined to make an investigation. Late yesterday aftermoon, with the assistance of several inspectors, he examined about thirty cars. Those that had arrived within the last few days were found to be yet wholesome, but the ice was rapidly melting.

There were nine whole carloads how.

wholesome, but the ice was rapidly melting.

There were nine whole carloads, however, from which the ice had been nearly all melted away, and the fish was in a bad state.

Thirty-nine large boxes in another car were also condemned and removed. This morning the cars were made upinto a train and pushed by a dummy engine to West Thirtieth street, where the contents were loaded on dump carts and trucks and carted to the offal dock. There were many tone, and the loss in volved will approximate a small fortune. The seized fish was consigned to Harney Cohen, ils Bouth street; Winant & Co., 133 Beekman street, and B. Henjamin & Co., 44 Beekman street, and B. Henjamin & Co., 44 Beekman street.

The remaining cars will be inspected daily unless the contents are removed. The fish not seized will probably be inspected in the market, and cheap instead of almost prohibitive prices will prevail for the fact, and continued to exact the full amount of $1,500 per annum from them. The suit was brought to recover excess of payments.
